

Green Design is the Cornerstone of West York Area Middle School

The design team for the West York Area Middle School focused on input from educators to create a place to learn and sustainable or Green Design to capture renewable energy while building with recycled and recyclable Materials.

Energy Efficiency - With three classroom sections between an auditorium/cafeteria wing and gymnasium facilities, the school presents more surface area to the warm southern sun and a smaller hub-like surface to the cold northwest wind.

